UNION ROW AT FUNERAL.
Differences developed between three antagonistic drivers' unions at the funeral of Michael Feeley, in Williamsburg, N. Y., Friday, and before the tangle could be straightened out the police reserves had to be called. While the services at the church were being concluded the driver of the hearse and the men on the boxes of the mourners' carriages engaged in a heated wrangle over union differences. When the mourners left the church they found all the drivers had deserted. The drivers remained obdurate and the police reserves were called to disperse the gathering crowd. After a long delay it was suggested that the drivers of the respective unions take separate routes to the cemetery. This was agreed to, and the hearse proceeded to the cemetery unaccompanied, while the mourners proceeded to the grave by two separate routes.

Health in the Canal Zone.
The high wages paid makes it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained, however, by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poisons, biliousness, weakness, and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store. 50c.

WANTED MONEY BEFORE CEREMONY.

Love, with purring and cooing, sweet nothings may be all right for some, but Mrs. Mary Sweeney, though only 28, yet two times a widow, delights also in the jingle of coin of the realm. This was proved when she hesitated at plighting her troth with Adam Beschel, aged 64, who was divorced four years ago, until Adam delivered $400 in real money. The pair went to Greensburg, Pa., to get married. When the clerk had the preliminaries all arranged Mary smiled sweetly on Adam, but hinted that "something had been forgotten." The groom-elect thought a moment, then produced the money. Mary glowed on her latest help-mate and the ceremony proceeded.
